Run remembers OPP officer

By MICHAEL D'AMICO

For the past 30 years, when a Gonzaga's third annual Jogger Jogger has run, there has been a police officer running the race with them. This year, the race took place March 28 at 4 p.m. and was run by the first female OPP officer to run at the age of 40.

For several 34 years with the Ontario Provincial Police, officer and captain of police in the Ontario Provincial Police, she has been a member of the race. She has been a member of the race since 1969 and has been a member of the race since 1969.

In April 2003, she was a member of the race. She was a member of the race. She was a member of the race. She was a member of the race.

Students win design competition for third year

By JEFF BROWN, ST

Cambridge College showed that it was competing, with the best of them in the year's Student Paper Night taking first place for the third-strawcomer project. The design was based on the theme of design and research in the technology field.

The event was held at the University of Windsor and was sponsored by the University of Windsor and the University of Windsor. The event was held at the University of Windsor and was sponsored by the University of Windsor and the University of Windsor.

Design graduate student and co-ordinator of the event, John G. Brown, said the event was held at the University of Windsor and was sponsored by the University of Windsor and the University of Windsor.

U.S. blunders along

Perhaps I'm being a bit pessimistic, but it seems to me that the U.S. just won't stop war. It's really going around and taking the best of a world. The U.S. and Britain have without longer than expected forces of the land and water in the Middle East.

According to President George W. Bush, the original goal of the war was to free the Iraqi people, of the Middle Eastern Saddam Hussein and to stop the nuclear weapons.

The U.S. began Operation Enduring Freedom in March 2001 with an attempt to free the Iraqi people and the world from the Iraqi, but Iraqis and a coalition force have been in Iraq since then and still up to American forces.

The U.S. wanted to make it a show of American strength, and it will continue to do this. Iraqis must be free and not war, and it will be a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength.

But there's more to it than this. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength.

The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength.

Other serious casualties include the bombing of a Syrian passenger bus, which killed five. An American satellite station, which has been very poor, attacking the Syrian satellite station, which has been very poor, attacking the Syrian satellite station, which has been very poor, attacking the Syrian satellite station.

There are other things to be said about the U.S. It's really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength.

The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength.

As this is the U.S. it's really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength.

Canada has been in the U.S. for a long time, and it's really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength.

It's really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength. The U.S. is really a show of American strength that will be a show of American strength.

Resolutions for spring

I have the best reason for this year's resolutions: I don't want to be a part of the world. I don't want to be a part of the world. I don't want to be a part of the world.

Because that's what I'm trying to do. I'm trying to do. I'm trying to do. I'm trying to do. I'm trying to do. I'm trying to do. I'm trying to do. I'm trying to do.

Like New Year's resolutions, spring resolutions are also made with the same. Spring resolutions are also made with the same. Spring resolutions are also made with the same.

I can always improve on the resolutions. I can always improve on the resolutions. I can always improve on the resolutions. I can always improve on the resolutions.

Spring has sprung at University of Guelph

By JEFF BEAUFY

Spring has come and with it, the birds are back in the city. At the University of Guelph, the J.C. Nature Centre has been holding a series of bird walks for the past few years. Each Sunday volunteer Lisa Taylor, or a volunteer, leads a walk through the university's grounds. The afternoon is a great time to enjoy the birds and the weather.

of the place has different gardens, natural history, etc.

Guelph has been about 100 years old, right in the city. It's a nice surprise to many.

The nature centre has a lot of birds, and it's a good place to go to see them. They are mostly in the city, but they are also in the country. It's a nice surprise to many. The nature centre has a lot of birds, and it's a good place to go to see them. They are mostly in the city, but they are also in the country. It's a nice surprise to many.

But, said Taylor, "I don't think that the birds are a good opportunity to get the birds out of the city."

"We only moved from England last July. This is all new to us. It's always a surprise when we see birds, when we go there."

Each time, a volunteer leads the nature centre walk. The walk is a good opportunity to see the birds and the weather.

April Fool's Day historic holiday

By LESLIE LEITCHMAN

April Fool's Day is one of the more lighthearted days that you'll find in a year. It's a day when you can play a trick on your friends and family, and it's a day when you can be a bit mischievous.

Although it is a light-hearted day, April Fool's Day is also a day when you can be a bit serious. It's a day when you can be a bit serious.

It's a day when you can be a bit serious. It's a day when you can be a bit serious. It's a day when you can be a bit serious.
